

POSTMASTER M'GINNIS RESIGNS IN ORDER TO GIVE HIS ENTIRE TIME TO PRIVATE INTERESTS

Notice of Acceptance Received
From Washington This Morning.

SERVED SINCE IN 1913

Volume of Business Has Greatly Increased During Tenure and Office Is in High State of Efficiency. Tribute Paid to Co-workers and Public.

On account of his extensive private business interests W. D. McGinnis, postmaster of Connellsville for the past seven years, will retire. He received official notice this morning
from Washington of the acceptance of his resignation, tendered some time ago, with the assurance that steps
would be taken as soon as possible
to relieve him of the duties of the office.

Mr. McGinnis leaves the office in excellent condition. Since his appointment as postmaster in 1913 he has been unusually efficient in his work, bringing all departments up to a high standard. The work is running smoothly and there are sufficient employees to handle all mail
and other work in connection with the office with dispatch, so as the public
may receive the best of service.

In speaking of his resignation this morning Mr. McGinnis made the following statement:

"Yes, it is true, that I have resigned
as postmaster, and expect to be relieved of my official duties very shortly. I regret that it is necessary for me
to quit the service, but my personal affairs have grown so rapidly during the past few years that all my time is required in looking after my own business. I have enjoyed my postal work, and while I have not been able to give all my time to it, I have kept intimately in touch with the service.
In leaving, I feel that the post office
here is in first-class shape. Connellville has the best-organized force of employees of any postal office I know,
and I am claiming only a small part of the credit. The men and women
there are loyal, competent and trustworthy from every standpoint. Every employee knows his duty, performs it,
and therefore has the respect and esteem of all his fellows.

"During my incumbency, since 1913,
the office here has grown wonderfully
and is now doing a business in excess of any previous period. There are 35 or 40 persons employed at present and this number must shortly be increased."

"In quitting the service, I am not unhappy of the 100 per cent support
given me by the office patrons,
the employees, the business houses of town and particularly The Courier and the News. I thank 'em all.'"

McGinnis would have had a year and a half yet to serve on his second term. He is said to have contemplated for some time retiring from the government work, principally because of his extensive interests in coal and coca.

OFFICIAL DELEGATE VOTE

All of 67 Counties of State But Mercer
Have Reported.

HARRISBURG, June 5.—A bureau
of election officers today made an official count of the primary vote for 66 counties. Mercer commissioners not having returned their figures owing to a contest. It is hoped to obtain some information from Mercer within the next 24 hours.

The official vote for 66 counties for Republican delegates at large is as follows: Allegheny, 372,453; Knox, 352,427; Moore, 331,213; Sprout, 322,
717; Chandler, 322,549; Elverson, 319,
307; Miner, 318,352; Babcock, 317,061;
Penrose, 314,727; Mellen, 314,061;
Kendricks, 313,727; Shaffer, 299,675;
Biddle, 262,209; Repligle, 249,123; Mc-Grath, 202,573.

Sprout, 382.

QUARRELED THREE YEARS

Says Witness in Smith Case Telling of Doctor and Wife.

Dr. Alfred C. Smith and his wife of South Brownsville quarreled every day for three years, the physician's office girl, Miss Jessie Labin, testified during the forenoon today in the trial of the counter divorce suits before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen in Uniontown.

Mrs. Smith often used vile and indecent language in speaking to the doctor, the witness said. "Why don't you marry that red-headed on the hill (Mrs. Bertha Brown, the co-respondent) and have a dozen red-headed kids?" she taunted him one day, the witness said.

Mine Driver Injured.

Carl Huedash, a motor driver in the mine of the H. C. Frick Coke company at Leisensburg No. 3 was injured yesterday when he fell from a grain of cars. In addition to body injuries his right arm was broken and the elbow dislocated.

REV. NACE RESIGNS, WILL GO TO JAPAN AS A MISSIONARY

Retiring Reformed Pastor Will Be Accompanied By His Wife.

TIME NOT YET CERTAIN

Probably Will Be in Early Autumn,
According to Present Plans; Decision to Take Up New Line of Work Follows Second Official Challenge.

Rev. I. G. Nace, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, last night tendered his resignation at a meeting of the consistory, to take effect on August 1.
From that time on until the latter part of September or the early part of October Rev. Nace and Mrs. Nace will prepare to go to Japan, where they will become missionaries of the Reformed church.

Rev. Nace, who was challenged in May to become a missionary to Japan,
announced his acceptance during the session of the Westmoreland classis held here recently. He was elected at the meeting of the executive committee of the foreign mission board held in Reading May 13th. On Thursday he received word that he and Mrs. Nace had passed the physical examinations.

The minister immediately began preparations to sever his connections with the local church. Mrs. Nace on Thursday night resigned as president of the Church Work society.

Just when Rev. and Mrs. Nace will leave America is not known. Rev.
Nace will go to Philadelphia next week and obtain information at the headquarters of the board of foreign missions there. His departure will depend on the arrangements that can be made for passage, much boat space being taken up during September for transportation to Tokyo of delegates to the World Sunday school convention
which will be held there.

The Japanese mission acceptance
means a life work for Rev. and Mrs.
Nace. The first period of service is seven years. Then follows a year's furlough and the second period of service.

The missionaries will be first located at the language school at Tokyo, where they will study for two years. After that time Rev. Nace will do evangelistic work or become a teacher in the college there.

First challenged to become a missionary in the Japanese field while a student in the seminary at Lancaster,
Rev. Nace did not accept at that time because of several obstacles in the way. During March he received the second challenge, which was accepted.

Rev. Nace became the pastor of the Trinity Reformed church here on July 1, 1918. It was his first charge, he coming directly from the Reformed Theological seminary at Lancaster,
following his graduation. Shortly after being installed here, he was ordained. He received a B. D. degree at the seminary and graduated from Franklin & Marshall college in 1915
with an A. B. degree. Mrs. Nace received an A. B. degree at Hood college, Frederick, Md., and has had some experience in orphan's home work. Her home is at Greenville, Mercer county.

Rev. Nace is the youngest minister in Connellsville. Since coming here
he has made a large circle of friends,
taking an active interest in the city's welfare. He is president of the missionary association, also president of the ministerial association of the Westmoreland classis, which meets in Greensburg every two weeks. He has also been an active worker in the Boy Scout movement, giving what assistance he could, and during the summer camps of this organization was always a welcome visitor, his interest in the youths making his presence desired.

NO MORE CARNIVALS

During Present Year Promise of Firemen; Fund to Be Made Up.

According to an agreement by the West Side volunteer fire department,
there will be no more carnivals in Connellsville during 1920. Instead the firemen will accept a cash subscription taken up in the city with which to defray the expenses of the annual outing, which this summer will be held at Conestoga Lake.

An offer by Mrs. Katharine Wallace
to give her personal check to the firemen and collect from the city merchan-
tise has been accepted.

More than half the necessary fund
has already been pledged, it is reported.

Uncertainty in Germany.

BERLIN, June 5.—With the general election in Germany only 48 hours away there were few political leaders in Berlin tonight, willing to hazard even a tentative prediction regarding the outcome of the balloting. There was general agreement that the country had never faced a more profound political enigma.

CONNELLVILLE MAN AND TWO SISTERS LEARN THEY ARE HEIRS TO FORTUNE OF $1,250,000 IN CASH IN A LONDON BANK

A fortune of $1,250,000 is awaiting Thomas Neville of this city, Mrs. Mary Connelly of Duquesne, formerly of Connellsville, and Mrs. Isabella Dougherty of McKeesport, the heirs have learned through Thomas S. Sampson, a barrister in London, England, who came here in an effort to locate the heirs to the money which is inherited through the mother of Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. Dougherty and Mr. Neville.
It has been accumulating since 1902,
the date of the death of an aunt, Mrs.
Evangelist Humphrey in London.

A codicil in the will directed that in case the heirs could not be located,

the money be used for the erection of a home in Pennsylvania to be named Madame Neville's Home for Fallen
Girls, in honor of the mother of Mr.
Neville, Mrs. Connelly and Mrs.
Dougherty.

Mr. Sampson called at the Neville home in Race street last evening and all necessary papers were signed by Mr. Neville and Mrs. Connelly, who is visiting at the Neville home. He had spent several days in Somerset in search of the heirs. The last Mrs.
Humphrey had heard of the Nevilles

they were residing at that place.
This morning the representative
went to McKeesport to see Mrs.
Dougherty and will then return to London.

The money, Mr. Sampson said, is in a bank in London and he assured the heirs that they would receive their share of the fortune, which will amount to over $400,000, in about six months.

Mr. Neville was at one time foreman of the men on the work train of the Connellsville division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

THREE-LEGGED CHICK, ROCK RIDGE FREAK.

A three-legged chick is the freak that was hatched out of the other day at the home of J. F.
Feige, a Baltimore & Ohio electrician, near Rock Ridge. The extra appendage is attached to the breast bone and while it is useless for locomotion, dragging
along between the regular ones,
it is supplied with muscles and twiches quite energetically.

CONNELLVILLE MEN ATTEND REPUBLICAN PARTY CONVENTION

Delegation of Local Politicians Leaves
On Early Train; Kephart Goes
With Sprout.

Several Connellsville politicians left
this morning to attend the Republican convention at Chicago. Hotel reservations had been made and the local delegation left on the early train.

Among those in the party were State Treasurer Harmon M. Kephart, H. C.
Hays, Fred Munk, Otto Koehler, T. E.
Donnelly and Thomas Love. Mr. Kephart passed through Connellsville during the early morning on Baltimore &
Ohio train No. 7 with Governor Sprout
and party.

"BIG JUNE FROST"

Which Denuded Gardens and Grain
Fields, Occurred 61 Years Ago Today.

Old citizens were reminded by the low temperature this morning that the day marks the 61st anniversary of the "Big June Frost."

On the morning of June 5, 1857, the residents of Western Pennsylvania
awoke to find that a killing frost had fallen during the night. To that time the season had been favorable to the growth of farm and garden crops.
Wheat was headed and in blossom.
Corn was nearly knee high and other crops were progressing finely. The frost destroyed practically every growing thing. Gardens and fields had to be replanted and a large acreage of buckwheat was sown to take the place of the lost wheat crop.

NO BALL GAME TODAY

Rain Causes Cancellation; Munhall
Firemen Next Saturday.

Because of the rain of yesterday
and last night, making the grounds unfit, the baseball game between the Connellsville Independents and the Kirkley club of Pittsburgh at Fayette field this afternoon was called off.
The team may be here later.

Next Saturday the Munhall firemen
will be the opponents of the Independents. The Munhall team has won five out of six games played during the season, defeating the Homestead
Greys, Schoen Steel, Irwin and Elizabeth teams.

TICKETS IN DEMAND

Good Advance Sale for High School
Class Play.

There is a brisk sale of tickets for the high school class play, "The Arrival of Kitty," to be presented at the auditorium Tuesday evening. The reservations may be made Monday at Hetzl's drug store beginning at 9 o'clock.

Tomorrow night marks the opening of commencement week with the baccalaureate sermon at the high school.
It will be preached by Dr. Herbert McComb Moore, of the University of Pittsburg.

BURNED BY ACID.

Hotel Guest Victim When Bottle Falls
and Breaks.

N. N. Wendell of Washington, D. C., a guest at a local hotel, was severely burned about the arm and shoulder
early this morning while preparing to retire, when a bottle of hydrochloric
acid fell from his pocket and splashed on him. A physician relieved the pain.

The acid is dangerous in many ways
and Wendell was fortunate in not being more seriously hurt. He has left the city.

TENTH BAND CONFERENCE WEST PENN TO BE WELL REPRESENTED AT STATE CONFAB

To Be Held Here Sunday Between
Lieut. Kimmel and Committee.

Lieutenant Don M. Kimmel of Somerset, chief musician of the compelling Tenth Regiment band, will be in Connellsville Sunday for a conference with members of a committee named for the purpose at a recent meeting of the Connellsville Military band and other musicians. On this committee are O. R. Herwick, chairman; Hugh Mulac, B. C. Burkhart, R. L. Hannan and W. B. Shaw.

The meeting between Lieutenant Kimmel and the committee will be in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. A conference with a committee of boosters
for the band may be held later in the day. Mr. Kimmel was in Pittsburg
today to meet Colonel Edward Martin
relative to the recruiting of the band.

Permanent Injunction.
Judge E. H. Reppert Friday following a hearing entered an order directing that the permanent injunction be issued in favor of the Genuine Connellsville Coke company shall remain in force until further order of court. The order restrains Ervin Brown, Oliver
Brown and Asual Brown from interfering in any manner with the company's use of a railroad siding through

STEAM ROLLER CHARGES BRING HOT REPLIES FROM FRIEND AND FOE OF MAJOR GENERAL WOOD

WILSON BUSY DURING DAY SIGNING BILLS

Naval and Army Appropriation, Vocational Measures and Others Approved.

TAKES FLING AT CONGRESS

Solons Criticized for Failure to Reduce High Cost of Living and Take Action Toward Ratification of Peace Treaty; Writes to Railroad Men.

President Wilson devoted practically his entire time today to signing
bills passed in the closing days of the present session of Congress. Measures approved included the annual naval, sundry civil, diplomatic and consulate and District of Columbia appropriation bills, the industrial vocational rehabilitation bill, the bill permitting government radio stations to handle private and press messages and
the Army reorganization bill.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Wilson, in a telegram to officials of the railroad brotherhoods, criticized Congress for failing to take action
with regard to the high cost of living,
the conclusion of peace and important
domestic legislation.

The telegram was in reply to a message asking the President to prevent adjournment of Congress today. Mr.
Wilson said that in the light of the record of the present Congress "I have no reason whatever to hope that its continuance in session would result in constructive measures for the relief
of economic conditions to which you call attention."

"It must be evident to all that the dominating motive which has actuated
this Congress is political expediency
rather than lofty purpose to serve the public welfare."

The President declared he had accepted some of the legislation enacted
by this Congress because he desired of better things.

WILSON RUMOR DENIED

No Change For Worse, President
Better, Dr. Bertram Declares.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Reports that President Wilson's condition has taken a turn for the worse were denied today by Dr. Francis Y. Bertram of this city.

"They are silly rumors," said Dr.
Bertram, who has frequently been called on consultation at the White House. "When I last saw the President, he was in such good condition
that I did not think it necessary to go back. I have discontinued my regular visits to the President."

ECHARD HOME ENTERED

Few Dollars in Change All Secured at Murphy Avenue Residence.

Burglars entered the home of J. E.
Echard of East Murphy avenue last night. The cupboard in the kitchen was ransacked and a child's money
bank containing about $3 was taken and dishes were strewn about. From a bookcase a pocketbook containing some change was also taken.

The thieves were apparently after
money as nothing else was missing.
The entrance was gained through the back door.

tend the National Republican convention. This announcement was made cians.

ment: "Senator Penrose has finally consented to follow the advice of his physicians and not go to Chicago."

EARLY DECISION

pected; Possibly Within a Week.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 5.—R. M. Barton, chairman of the United States Railroad Labor Board, yesterday announced the board would try to make a temporary decision on wage demands within a week.

The board then adjourned immediately.

sociation will be held on Monday ow-

NOTHING IS REPUDIATED

The General Declares in Statement Issued This Afternoon to Charges of Senator Moses; "His Own, My Own; Women Sit in Committee."

CHICAGO, June 5.—Charges of Senator Moses of New Hampshire that the Republican National committee has used steam roller methods in deciding contests were denied by several committee men at today's session.

H. B. McCoy, national committee man from the Philippines, brought up the Moses charges and, declaring he was a Wood supporter, denounced Senator Moses' statement as "absolutely unwarranted."

National Committeeman Hyland of West Virginia, also for Wood, made a similar statement.

Neither General Wood nor Colonel Procter, his campaign manager, support charges of Senator Moses, that the National committee has used such methods, Mr. McCoy declared.

In disposing of the remaining Georgia district contests today the committee unanimously seated D. C. Coles, of Marietta, a Wood delegate, and dismissed the contest of a delegate
said to favor Governor Lowden.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The probability that Wood leaders will carry several delegates contests to the credentials
committee was announced by Major General Leonard Wood today.

"I do not know what contests will be appealed to the credentials committee," said General Wood, "but there probably will be a number of them. We are simply pursuing our rights in this respect."

Asked whether he considered his statement last night on the action of the National committee at yesterday's session as repudiation of the statement of Senator Moses, General
Wood said:

"I am not repudiating anything.
Senator Moses' issued his statement and I issued mine. They stand as separate statements. Senator Moses issued his statement for himself and I issued mine for myself. I have not repudiated in connection with either statement."

CHICAGO, June 5.—Women sat in the deliberations of the Republican National committee today, taking part
for the first time in making convention decisions. Mrs. S. S. Beggs of Kansas, Mrs. Vennona Swan of Missouri and Mrs. J. S. Bessley of Tennessee sat holding proxies of the national committeemen from their home states. Apparently taking a hearty interest in their new found privilege the women sat placidly in the clouds of tobacco smoke, mostly following the arguments and voting
in the decisions.

CHICAGO, June 5.—If the program
being discussed by Republican state leaders is carried out at the national convention next week important factors in the choice for president shall be a dark horse or one of the candidates now in the field no one assumes
to say because only the preliminary balloting can determine it. It may develop that some one of the candidates
now in the field, besides having good prospects for his own nomination will also hold a veto power which will compel the convention managers to accept a man of whom he approves.
Senator Johnson is always mentioned
when this probability is being discussed. None of the practical politicians, denies the force of the argument.

This is the last day of the National committee's deliberations on contests
in state delegations unless something suddenly is upset and the committeemen
will be free to take part in the conferences of Sunday and Monday which play a large part in deciding
the destinies of the convention.

Chairman Hays is making no statement in reply to the steam roller charges but he points out that the committee made its practice in its open sessions to put upon its minutes
the legal reasons for its decisions in each case and this record will be available in the credentials committee or if a fight is carried to the convention floor.

Several full delegations and fragments of others were scheduled to roll
in today. Among them were the California and Nevada delegations on the "Golden Poppies" special, named for the quantities of California flowers
kept on ice for distribution here.

Chilly weather is a surprise, well-come or otherwise. Some of the Texas
and other southern delegates are complaining because they came unprepared for low temperatures.

Most of the visitors have had hotel
reservations days and even months
but many are reporting heavy taxicab fares in search of rooms. Among recent bookings at the prominent hotels are Judge E. E. Gay, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation;
George W. Perkins, New York City;
Henry W. Taft, John Hays Hammond,

MISS DURNELL ENGAGED

TO J. E. COUGHENOUR
Mrs. C. N. Durnell gave a charmingly appointed party last evening at her home in Patterson avenue to announce the engagement of her daughter, Miss Whitfreed Durnell, to James Barron Coughenour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Coughenour of Saylors street. A major scheme of pink and white was beautifully carried out. Music, including vocal solos by Miss Margaret Dull, and readings by Miss Gertrude Lindsay, were the amusement of the evening and a very enjoyable time was had. A delicious luncheon was served at one large and two smaller tables. Pink and white were the colors of the occasion. The ice cream was in the form of pink roses. Small pink baskets, filled with pink and white candy and containing umbrella-shaped cards adorned with orange blossoms and bearing the name of Miss Durnell and Mr. Coughenour were the favors. Miss Durnell is popular in Conneltsville's social circles and for some time has been bookkeeper for the "Goodwin" company, of which her fiancé is manager. Mr. Coughenour is a veteran of the World War, serving with Company H of the 28th Division, and is well and favorably known. The engagement will terminate in a June marriage. About thirty guests were present at the party. Miss Mary Kline of Pittsburgh, a cousin of Miss Durnell, was an out-of-town guest.

ORGANDY AND TAFFETA
A bit of safety in a stately frock—this is quaintness—and here is the exponent of it. Black taffeta makes bodies, underskirt and plaited ruffles at the waist which is fastened with a gold ribbon, fruit and flowers. A long organdy overskirt with a wide band of flat lace set in gives summer lightness to the frock.

Chooses Wedding Date
Miss Cecelia Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Head of Greensburg, has selected June 8 as the date for her marriage to Emmet Loughner of Pittsburgh. Just the two families will attend the wedding which will be solemnized at St. Vincent's church, Greensburg, at 10 o'clock. A wedding breakfast at "Metropole" farm, the home of the bride's parents, will follow the ceremony. Miss Head is a niece of Mrs. Rose Showalter of this city.

Dunbar Musical
A musical will be given on Sunday, June 6 at 3 o'clock by the children of St. Aloysius school, Dunbar, in St. Aloysius hall. It promises to be a great success, as the children have worked hard and earnestly and from all indications this musical will be one of the best given in Dunbar. Those taking part in it are: Master J. Farley, Misses Madeline Harper, Camilla Harper, Loreta DeOre, Anita DeOre, Rose McGovern, Virginia McGovern, Eleanor McGovern, Rosemary Courtney, Mary Margaret Kearney, Mary Miller, Grace Farley, Milly Spirito, Aileen Miller, Camilla Kervin, Mary McCusker, and Nellie Higgins.

Officers to be Installed
The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church at Vanderhill will hold a special young people's service Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30, at which time officers will be installed. The church will be decorated for the occasion in red and white. An invitation is extended to the public.

Miss Kendall Gives Dinner
Miss Mary Willa Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Louis Kendall of Pittsburgh, formerly of Conneltsville, entertained the members of the bridal party at a dinner last night at the hotel Schenck preceding the wedding of Miss Katherine Louise Hartman of Pittsburgh and Caleb Lane Eberhard of Charlotte, N. C. Miss Kendall's engagement was recently announced to Joseph Lynch Canby of Chicago, Ill. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Guiler of West Peach street.

Missionary Meeting
An interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary association of the United Brethren church was held last evening in the church with many members in attendance. A mission study from the book "A Crusade of Compassion" was carried out. Mrs. J. L. Thomas, Mrs. J. S. Shivers, Mrs. S. L. Fletcher were elected delegates to the annual convention to be held June 8, 9 and 10 in McKeesport. Miss Laura Belle Kooser will represent the Pittsburg Guild at the convention.

Granted Marriage License
Albert H. Steadman of Mount Pleasant and Mary E. Bunnell of Conneltsville; Charles M. Swift of Uniontown and Hannah M. Goodwin of Lemont; were granted marriage licenses in Greensburg.

McClure Overholt
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jean McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Furt A. McClure of Fairmont, W. Va., and Ernest McClure Overholt, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Overholt of Scottsdale. The ceremony took place on Thursday evening.

SMITHFIELD CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT SOLDIERS' HOME

Funeral of James C. Huhn, 83 Years Old, Will Be Held Sunday from Home of Son.

Special to The Courier.
SMITHFIELD, June 5.—James C. Huhn died at the Soldiers' Home at Erie Thursday, in his 83rd year. The remains arrived here, accompanied by relatives, Friday.

The funeral will take place from the home of his son, Charles H. Huhn, Liberty street, at 2 o'clock Sunday. Rev. M. R. Hackman will officiate. The services at the cemetery will be in charge of Jerry Jones, Fox No. 541, C. A. R., of which Mr. Huhn was a member. He served during the Civil War in Company E, 14th Pennsylvania Cavalry.

He was twice married, his first wife being a daughter of Johnson Dittelbliss. After her death he married Margaret Martin, a daughter of James and Susan Martin. To the first union the following children were born: John H. Huhn, W. W. Huhn, George, Des Moines, Ia.; Gideon, New Geneva, and Emeline Huhn, Pittsburgh. To the second were born Dr. Lloyd Huhn, Chicago; Frederick, Pittsburgh; Omer, Erie; James and C. H. Smithfield. All are living but James, two brothers, Henry C. Smithfield, and Jackson, Fayette county, and a sister residing in Greene county also survive.

ECZEMA ON BABY CUTICURA HEALS

In Rash Over Head and Side Of Face. Itched Badly.

"When eczema broke out on baby, it came in a big red rash all over his head and one side of his face. The itching got so bad he would scratch, and it would get like a large burn and spread. He was very cross and fretful."

"I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. It was not long before the rash dried, and after using four cakes of Soap and one and a half boxes of Ointment he is healed."

Do You Feel Dressed Up in a Soft Collar?

"A great demand for a smart-looking, starched collar for men has developed as a result of the war."

This statement is a quotation from an article that appeared recently in a magazine that is an authority for men's wear in the United States.

As a nation, the war taught us neatness. Men learned the value of trim dress. The passing of the soft collar and the popularity of the starched is a result of that object lesson. For it is a fact that no single detail of apparel adds so much to a man's good appearance as a well-starched collar.

Our services are especially at your disposal for this item of your dress. You send us your collars—we deliver them perfectly laundered, lustrous, immaculate, smooth and pearly, with none of the rough "saw" edges of the old stand-up of the days gone by.

Play fair with yourself in your personal attire. Telephone us. Then wrap your bundle securely and our driver will call for it.

OVER 200,000 CARS WERE IN CONGESTED CENTERS ON MAY 8

Accidents in Passing on Three Lanes Assessed Value $1,200,000.00. A county show that the coal companies operating in that county mined last year 2,016,500 tons of coal on which an aggregate assessment of nearly $1,200,000 was available for purposes of taxation. The coal mined from 2,016,500 tons in a single year indicates very plainly the passing of the Counsellville coking seam, the Pittsburgh gas coal and the Greensburg "basin" steam coal, three of the greatest seams of merchantable coal in the world. But with all the figures show that the mining of the two Freeport, the Waynesburg seam and perhaps other seams of coal are being very extensively mined. The total coal mined in the county in 1919 was 25,000,000 tons. In many sections two or more seams of coal are being mined in the same acreage, one mining operation on top of another. Hunting Bargains? Read our advertising columns and you will find them.

RESCUE BY PLANES

Is Planned by the Bureau of Mines: Regarded as Feasible. Steps are being taken by the Bureau of Mines to make possible the use of airplanes in facilitating mine rescue work. Feasibility of the plan is discussed in a report by the bureau prepared by F. J. Bailey, assistant to the director. The plan is to use air rescue equipment, and making aerial maps of the coal fields. A preliminary equipment from the various stations of the bureau to the mines which they serve the saving of time being essential in reaching the scene of disaster. Major General Charles T. Menzies, director of air service, has advised the Bureau of Mines that he will co-operate in working out the plan, determining upon landing fields and capacity of planes for carrying mine rescue equipment, and making aerial maps of the coal fields. A preliminary survey has indicated that airplane service might be effectively utilized in the Pottsville coal fields of Illinois and Indiana. A co-operative agreement has been made whereby the Bureau of Mines safety station at Pottsville, in its rescue work. Hunting Bargains? Read our advertising columns and you will find them.

SOLVING THE CARNIVAL PROBLEM

A happy and satisfactory solution of the carnival proposition seems to have been reached. In deference to strong and persistent public sentiment opposing this form of amusement enterprise, as given expression through the medium of the ministers of the city and the Courier, the firm have accepted the proposal of a number of public spirited citizens who will provide funds sufficient to meet the expenses of the annual outing which is this year to be held at Conneaut Lake. The firm further agree to book no more carnivals this year.

By this action the firm are relieved of considerable responsibility, a lot of hard work and an issue of long standing, and the occasion of some unpleasantness and misunderstanding, is disposed of permanently. It is hoped, in the protests against carnivals there has never been manifested any desire to deprive the firm of means to provide for their participation in the annual meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's Association. Their splendid service as protectors of property and lives has endeared them to every consideration and their right to be at least partially compensated by being enabled to have a large part in the affairs of their organization. The sole question involved has been that of the right of the city of public entertainment which has ceased to merit favor here and in many other towns and cities, and to the presence of which many citizens have long and consistently objected.

Having voluntarily consented to an elimination of the carnival as a means of raising funds for their convention expenses, and accepted as a substitute an arrangement to which no one can offer objection, the firm are to be very cordially commended. Similarly are the pastors of the city to be commended for having had the courage to remain steadfast in their opposition to what they knew to be a source of temptation to the youth of the city.

ANYBODY'S GUESS.

Not for many years have the political forecasters been quite so much at sea in "picking the winners" at a national convention as in 1920. Among the great gathering of delegates, party leaders, newspaper writers and observers of events now assembling at Chicago, there are none bold enough to stake their reputation as a prophet by naming the ticket in advance of action by the convention.

Heretofore there has been such a crystallization of sentiment in favor of one of two candidates that by the time the conventions have assembled it has been possible to determine with reasonable certainty who would be the nominees. This year the lack of willingness on the part of the political seers to prognosticate is due to the fact that of the several candidates who have been prominently before the public for some months past, not one of them has arrived at Chicago with a preponderating strength of pledged delegates. Of the 900 and more delegates comprising the convention, the undivided form a very large majority while no single candidate has more than one-third or one-eighth of the whole number whom he can count upon as definitely pledged to his support.

In this situation one man's guess, to be political prophet or ordinary plain citizen, is about as good as another's. Several of the candidates have apparently equal chance but until the balloting has progressed for some time, any forecast as to the final choice is likely to be wide of the mark. Such being the case there is great possibility that a so-called "dark horse" may be made the nominee, instead of one of the candidates who have been boosted so energetically.

The baccalaureate sermon is to be delivered to the graduating class of the high school. Although for the special event and counsel of the young men and young women who will shortly commence their duties as citizens, many truths will be uttered by the speaker which the grown-up can easily apply to their own conduct and some form of useful service to the community which, to this time, they may have neglected or have not fully prepared themselves to enter upon.

The weatherman assures us that the anniversary of the June "frost" will be deferred until November this year.

Our Isaac Waltons will have to restrict their catches in the streams of Clinton county, or have the reports of their success censored, otherwise an embargo may be declared against them.

Extinguishing the carnival in Conneltsville will not figure in the fire losses of the year, neither will the firemen sustain any loss by their action.

All the other candidates for the presidency may be gassy-footed, but we know where to find Debbs.

EVERY DELEGATE AT CONVENTION A PROPHET, SAYS ABE

prevails in the camps of all the presidential candidates, both light and dark. Men who have wasted the best years of their lives in politics are all in one accord as to the possibility of a lively scrap. They do not go so far as to say the party will split, but they do say it's due for a big shaking up. They say the conditions are ripe for a long, bitter drawn out fight, and they are big game reasons for their conclusions is the fact that whoever does get the nomination has got a climb in November.

No close political observer has dared predict harmony, for their kin only be harmony where nobody's got a chance. Therefore the impending contest, according to the best information, is going to be rough and eventful. This feeling prevails generally, and many delegates are trembling for fear their money won't hold out, as ham and eggs are costing all the way from 75 cents to $1.25.

A delegate is allus interestin' with his fresh hair cut, tight shoes, dusty shoulders, and general air of a state fair visitor. The little out of the way resturants are full of them—many of them wrestlin' with their first grapefruit. I alius wonder how a delegate looks at home where he's known and respected—where he's in repose and no great momentous political problems on his shoulders.

There's only two kinds of delegates—big, noisy, well-groomed delegates that sleeps late and has his face steamed and ironed out, and the retired, modest, shrinkin' delegate from the core oyster regions that's used to gettin' up at five o' clock. The early risin' delegate is the most interestin' both as to his hair cut and style of pitchin'. By the time he finds a resturin' that's cheap enough to suit him he has 't take his shoes off. His necktie alius shows evidence of a struggle, and there's alius a white line on the back of his neck, which proves conclusively where his hair comes to when he's sleepin' in his usual vacation.

This mornin' I asked an early risin' delegate what he thought of our foreign exchange, and he replied, right off the bat, "It'd abolish it."

An amiable hog raiser, an delegate from Indiana tells me he's paid all the way from 75 cents to a dollar for a half of grapefruit, dependin' on whether he had his hedge on or off.

There seems to be liquor hidden around Chicago. A stowed delegate occupied a big chair in the Congress hotel lobby for the greater part of Friday, while axolitin' through reviewed him. A heavy odor enveloped him closely resembling something between a dash of Roy's German cologne, an hot Ford, Everbuddy seemed anxious to know the secret of his success, and one kindly disposed statesman offered to conduct him safely to his lodgings if he'd give him a drink.

CONVENTION NOTES.

Hon. Finley Newcomb, of Bloom Center, Ohio, is mingling with the faithful on the second floor of the Congress. Mr. Newcomb played the fiddle in Blaine and Logan drum corps and clerked in the postoffice under Harrison, and claims to have a plan to break the solid South.

A by-stander who was surveyin' the crowds at the Congress was heard to remark: "A politician is like a umbrella. He's never there when you want him, and if he is he's broke."

Hon. Benton Swallow, editor of the Zanesfield (Ohio) Banner, is here attending the convention. Mr. Swallow is 32 years old, an remembers when tomatoes was poison and Ohio used to be a Republican.

I had the good fortune to interview Hon. Joe Keakin, one of the big Indiana Republicans, just as he left the elevator at the Congress this mornin'. He talked around a minute confin' himself closely to the treaty of Versailles.

It was rumored about the hotels Friday that an understandin' had been reached between the leaders of all wings of the party whereby a reservationist might be made temporary chairman, and a radical might be made permanent chairman, or vice versa, thus bringin' together the regulars, progressives, conservatives, the uncommitted, the domesticated, and the indomitable elements of the party in friendly rivalry.

SERVICE

A much abused term. It can be good, bad, or indifferent. Our's is good service—the VERY BEST. The Best Service means more than courteous treatment; more than prompt deliveries. It also means planning—planning weeks and months ahead—so that you will have quality goods at the right time and at the right price. Successful planning explains why we have been able to supply you with goods at lower prices than others; explains why we have been able up to the present time to sell our customers granulated sugar at from four to twelve cents a pound below other stores; explains why our prices on flour, potatoes, butter, and meats are lower than others. If you want the Very Best Service try a Union Supply Company store.

NEWS OF THE DAY AT MT. PLEASANT BRIEFLY RELATED

tion by East Huntingdon Township on Connelville Road Sought.

STRETCH IS ALMOST IMPASSABLE

Miss Evelyn Pahel Gives Post-Graduate Recital at Institute; Four Cases of Mumps and Several of Whooping Cough Reported to Board of Health.

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT June 5.—Miss Evelyn M. A. Pahel last evening gave her post-graduate recital at the Mount Pleasant institute, assisted by Miss Marion Field, violinist. A large number of out of town people were present.

Mumps and Whooping Cough.—Four cases of mumps were reported to the board of health yesterday afternoon. Several whooping-cough cases were also reported.

Road Improvement Sought.
An effort is being made again to interest the East Huntingdon township supervisors in the road that leads from the Connelville brick road at Iron Bridge to the Mount Pleasant road. This stretch of road is almost impassable and the heavy motor truck trains that pass over it every day for the past month or two are very hard on it.

Council Meeting Monday.
Council will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening when some very important matters concerning streets and sewers will be discussed.

Personals.
Alonso Clark, of Normalville is the guest of his nephew, Burgess S. P. Stevens.

At the Church of the Brethren.
Services Sunday at the First Brethren church, Shupe street W. A. Croft, pastor, will be. Preaching at 11, subject, "Among Thieves"; 7:30, subject, "Wasted Life." Sunday school at 9:45.

27,000,000 CAR DAYS LOST YEARLY THROUGH SHORTAGE IN SUPPLY

Means a Loss of $400,000,000 to the Producers of Coal; More Than Twice Miners' Wage Raise.

When it comes to car conservation in the coal line absolute figures as to saving are not obtainable, but from information furnished by the American Railroad Association it is believed there are about 27,000,000 car days lost a year through surpluses in the spring months, which means wastage of at least $100,000,000.

Under the old unstable conditions, equipment needs to be sufficient to take care of the peak of the demand, while a large part of it remains idle during the slack periods. Besides, if the equipment was evenly used throughout the year, there would be a large gain in car storage space saved.

By spreading the demand for coal evenly throughout the year, 60 days could be added to the operating time of the mines. That is about one-fifth of the total possible working days. However, it is hardly likely that the cost of coal at the mines would be reduced quite as much as 20 per cent, but it should not be a great deal less.

Coal, capital and labor are at present employed less than four-fifths of each year. The annual output of the industry is put at $1,300,000,000. A saving of one-fifth of the value of coal represents $260,000,000, or allowing for the increased labor cost resulting from the addition of 60 days to operating time of bituminous mines would be $400,000,000 a year, or nearly one and a quarter million dollars a day. That amount would be twice the increased labor cost resulting from the bituminous commission's award and more than four times the 11 per cent added cost granted by Dr. H. A. Garfield.

Got Good Results.
This honest, straight forward letter from a woman who has suffered should be heeded by all afflicted with backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, awful tired feeling and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble: "I have got such good results from Foley Kidney Pills that I can sleep much better and the pain in my back and sides is a good lot better. I am going to keep on taking them." Mrs. Chas. Gray, 270 5th St., Detroit, Mich. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

For the Relief of Rheumatic Pains.
When you have stiffness and soreness of the muscles, aching joints and it difficult to move without pain try massaging the affected parts with Chamberlain's Liniment. It will relieve the pain and make rest and sleep easy.

THE SALVATION ARMY—202 W. Crawford avenue, second floor. Ensign and Mrs. O'Berne in command. Kne drill, 7, company meeting, 2:30, Young People's Legion, 6:30, salvation meeting, 8 o'clock. Public meetings Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. The public is cordially invited to attend all of the above services, especially those who do not attend any other house of religious worship.

METHODIST PROTESTANT—W. Apple street. J. H. Lamberson, minister. Class meeting at 9, Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered. No C. I. or evening service. Will unite with baccalaureate services at the high school auditorium. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:45.

CHRISTIAN—George Walker Ducker, pastor. Bible school at 9:20. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. This is 15 minutes earlier on account of the baccalaureate sermon at high school. The topic is "What Bible-Reading Will Do For Us." Psalms 119:97-104. Leader, Cora Charlesworth. The juniors meet at the same hour. Morale.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

Chamberlain's Tablets

worship at 10:40, subject of sermon, "The Friend of Man and Foe of Evil in a Community." The evening meeting, except Christian Endeavor, is vacated on account of the baccalaureate sermon at the high school auditorium.

TRINITY REFORMED—South Pittsburgh and East Green streets, I. G. Pace pastor. Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11, subject "God-Ward Love," sermon by the pastor. No evening service because of the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates' students of the high school. The Young Ladies Guild will meet on Thursday evening in the committee room of the church.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN—J. I. Proudfoot, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45. Morning service at 11, subject of sermon, "The Loyalty of Others." No evening service. Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:15.

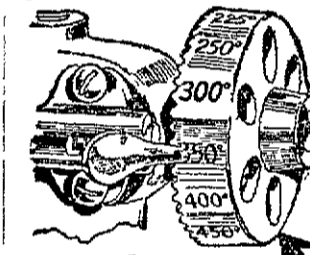

UNTRAINED SWITCHMEN

Including Clerks From Offices, Made Better Records Than Regulars.
Railroad officials and clerks who volunteered to leave their desks and go out into the yards to replace the striking outlaws' switchmen have revealed startling 'inefficiency' on the part of regular employees, says the Washington correspondent of the Daily Iron Trade. From one Ohio railroad center comes the statement that one volunteer crew of office employees has been handling more cars in one 9-hour shift than regular crews have in two eight-hour shifts.

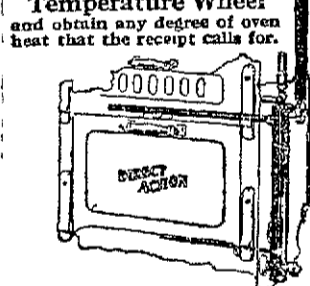

Hereon, says government railroad officials, lies the explanation why transportation previous to the calling of the "outlaw" strike was gradually slowing up. This alleged inefficiency on the part of switching crews is recalled, occurred while the men still were regulars in the ranks of the brotherhoods. Evidence of this sort will militate against the brotherhoods in pushing their claims for a $2,500 minimum annual wage for all railroad employees, it is emphatically declared here.

FANS WOULD LIKE TO SEE LEISENRING-TROTTER GAME

To Date Each Team Played and Won Five Contests.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS

The Trotter team seems to be the most formidable in the coke-region. This is evident by the fact that none of the other teams will agree to give the Trotter boys a game. Assistant Manager, Burkey, is seeking a game with Leisenring No. 1, was informed by Manager Pritchard that he would not give the Trotter team a game until he strengthened his team with slick players as Randolph, the Dickerson, Run-pitcher, Davis, a St. Vincent college catcher, and Riler, another fast baser. All these players are at present attending school and are to join the Leisenring team as soon as their school term is ended.

To date each team mentioned has played five games, counting the game with Leisenring, which Trotter won by default. This would be six for the Trotter team. Each team won all its games; which put them on an even footing. As Trotter is at present unable to get first-class teams to contest with, in our opinion Leisenring should give the Trotter team a game, which would show just how strong both teams are. If the No. 1 team should be defeated then it could come back at Trotter when the other players join the team.

We were informed some time ago that no player could play on any of the Pick teams unless he started working for the company previous to May 1. This ruling was to keep all teams at an even advantage, so they would not strengthen from other sources. Taken all around, at the present time Leisenring No. 1 and Trotter stand out from the rest of the Pick teams and if the managers should get together they would feature a game that would be worth while for anyone to travel a distance to see.

BASEBALL CHIRPS.

Assistant Manager Burkey of the Trotter team has signed for two games to take place next week. On Wednesday, June 3, Trotter plays the Bute team and on the following day they take on the Colonial No. 2 team.

Harry Randolph's arrival home will be awaited with interest as Harry has been and is being claimed as a pitcher by every team now playing. The one who will be fortunate enough to land this popular twirler will put over a "scoop." Randolph will be an attraction himself, with whatever team he goes.

The local Baltimore & Ohio team, about 13 strong, made the trip to Smithfield yesterday to play the railroad team of that place, but the game was cancelled on account of rain. The Smithfield team set the locals down to a fine chicken dinner.

There will be no game tomorrow at Fayette City. The team of that place was to play the Homestead Greys, but an edict was issued that in the future no more Sunday ball games will be allowed.

The American Chain team of Brad-dock, which broke even with its games with the local Independents, will play the Erie Republic team tomorrow at the latter place.

B. & O. Y. M. C. A. would like to arrange games with Smithfield, West Newton and Layton. Also Cumberland Y. M. C. A. Ball teams for Saturday games or any first class teams. Address E. B. Small, B. & O. Y. M. C. A., Connelville, Pa.

The local Keystone ball team was to go to Ohio to play a game there today and the B. & O. Y. M. C. A. go to Mount Braddock to play the team of that place also today.

BOXING.

The promoters who will put on the first boxing show held in Uniontown in three years have not decided upon the star bout as yet. Jack Perry, the Pittsburgh welter-weight, was offered inducements to meet the best boy obtainable, but as Perry was looking at Norfolk, he will not be able to give his answer until he returns today. If a bout cannot be arranged with Perry as one of the participants the promoters will try and arrange a bout between Johnny Ray of Pittsburgh and "Alhertown" Dundee. So that there will not be any delay in staging the contests, overtures have been made to Ray and Dundee. Word was received last evening to the effect that Dundee accepted the terms that were offered him, but Ray has yet to be heard from.

Mickey Forkins, one of Jimmie Dime's stable of boxers will be a visitor here next week. Mickey is a corking little fighter, who is kept busy by Dime. Forkins does most of his mixing through Ohio where he is a prime favorite. His manager, Dime, is well and favorably known here, through his connection with the boxing game.

Jimmy Wilde, the fly-weight champion of the world, has sailed for "Dear old England," taking with him $50,000 in American "jack." Wilde only took part in a half dozen scraps at the most and was here only a short spell.

LEARNED LOT IN BIG SERIES

Jimmy Ring of Champion Cincinnati Reds Picked Up More Than Coin in Crucial Games.

Smart ballplayers come out of a world series with something more than a cut on the gate. Jimmy Ring did. A year ago he didn't startle any of the clubs he was billed to start against. He says the big series taught him a lot.

"Those close games made a pitcher out of me. I had to keep my mind on what I was doing. I had to study every ball I pitched. In doing this I learned far more than if the Reds had made it easy for me. Yet, while I pitched winning ball under ordinary conditions, I kept on losing. Perhaps the breaks will be with me this year. But I learned that you must stay in shape to keep getting them over the corner."

"BAREFOOT JOE" VERY CAREFUL OF THE BALL

When Joe Jackson was playing with a team down South Carolina way many years ago, he didn't wear $10 baseball shoes.

For financial reasons Joe wore nothing on his feet. He roamed all over the briars, stubble and other litter in the outfield, which included numerous broken bottles, without it bothering him.

At the end of the fifth inning of a certain game Jackson came in to the bench and expostulated with the manager.

"You'd better get that glass out of center field," he said, "it's cutting the ball all to pieces."

ANOTHER SESSION NEXT FRIDAY

Election of Directors Is on the Program. Also Action on Resignation of Secretary Flagg, Presented Some Time Ago; Other News of the Day.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, June 5.—A special meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A., pastors and laymen of the Protestant church was held in the lobby of the association last night for the purpose of presenting the problems of the Young Men's Christian Association and preparing for an election of directors which will take place Friday night, at which time a meeting of the contributing members and Christian laymen will be held.

After outlining the purpose for which the meeting had been called the problems were discussed by J. M. Zimmerman, the treasurer of the association, and by the pastors and laymen present. The meeting was adjourned to meet again next Friday night.

Some time ago Secretary Flagg placed his resignation before the directors of the Y. M. C. A., either on the basis of a leave of absence of one year or as final. The board has so far failed to act upon it, but will probably decide the matter at the next regular meeting.

The Man Who Wasn't Himself

By
ROBERT AMES
BENNET

(Copyright by W. G. Chapman)

"Do you really use suggestion in your practice?" Clinton inquired of the physician as they seated themselves.

"Suggestion—little else," replied Doctor Kirkland. "You must bear in mind my specialty. Not but what, in time, the entire profession will be using suggestion as promiscuously as the Christian Scientists."

"How the Scientists would be scandalized if they heard you," said Mrs. Kirkland. "The slightest intimation that their treatment is related in any way to suggestion—"

"There is no matter; therefore everything is immaterial; therefore it is immaterial what they think," solemnly reasoned the physician.

"Isn't it?" queried Clinton.

"It is not immaterial," his host flatly contradicted himself. "What they think—what anyone thinks—is exceedingly material. As a man thinks in his heart so is he. For instance, you think you are a certain personality named Richard Clinton."

"I not only think it, I know it."

"Do you know yourself? Do you know what you really are? Does anyone know what he or she really is?"

"I at least have some idea who I am," replied Clinton, smiling.

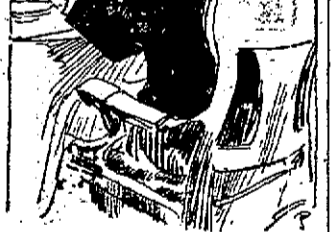

"Some idea? You mean a small idea, an extremely small idea. Every day there are millions of pictures, myriads of sounds, being stored away in your subconscious mind. Of how many of those were you aware at the time and how many can you now recall? Only a few, a pitiful cupful out of the ocean. Conscious man is a glowworm crawling over the vast dark field of his subconscious mind."

"You refer, I presume, to the odd cases known as double personality," remarked Clinton. "I must confess I hardly believe them possible."

"On the contrary," asserted Doctor Kirkland, "such cases are far more numerous than is commonly known. As I informed you, everybody is, strictly speaking, more or less insane."

"There he goes again!" put in Mrs. Kirkland. "We're all not quite ourselves!"

"Some are much less so than others," added her husband. "A few are not themselves at all. By the way, Mr."

He Eyed His Guest With Intense Keenness.

Clinton—to change the subject—I am interested in a small psychological experiment. It is to have one state, without pausing to think, the ideas suggested to him by a given word. Would you have any objections to my testing you?"

"None whatever."

Mrs. Kirkland and Ellen exchanged swift glances.

The physician smiled blandly. "Then if you'll answer quickly the ideas suggested by—bonds."

As he spoke the word he eyed his guest with intense keenness. The ladies involuntarily leaned forward to catch the answer. Clinton smiled and responded without a trace of hesi-

tancy: "Bonds—cash, bank account, trip to California—"

"Enough, thank you," interrupted the physician, his eyes twinkling with complacent self-satisfaction.

"If there is any other word you wish to try I shall be pleased to answer," said the guest.

"No, that was the only one. My real purpose in using it was to fish in your subconsciousness."

"And you caught—"

"Merely a confirmation of certain optical impressions."

"May I ask why you spoke of bonds?"

Mrs. Kirkland interposed. "I fear that you would hardly be interested in the matter."

"Why, mamma," said Ellen, "how could he be other than interested?"

"Perhaps, perhaps," qualified her father. He looked at the guest with a shrewd glance. "It is rather a private matter, Mr. Clinton."

"Then of course—Pardon my curiosity."

"We can trust you not to repeat what I tell you. Shortly before Will—Mr. Lowrie—accepted my advice to go to the sanitarium he was sent to Pueblo to negotiate for an issue of bonds. The parties whom he represented were allotted one hundred thousand dollars of the issue, and the bonds in that amount were delivered over to him. Soon afterward Charlie Berni, who had run down to Pueblo in his touring car, came upon Will sitting in the station grounds. He had missed his train. Charlie took him in, suitcase and all, and brought him to Denver. Late that evening he came home with his suitcase but without the bonds. He had not turned them in at the bank, and he could not remember what he had done with them. Except for a vague recollection of riding with Charlie and of wandering through City park, he could remember nothing since early that morning. The bonds have not yet been found."

"Has he never recalled what he did with them?"

"Not to our knowledge. Worry over their loss induced such alarming psychological conditions that the great specialist in charge of the sanitarium prescribed an absolute change. He has been temporarily cut off from everything related to his life here. The last report received by me was that he had been sent abroad in the care of one of the staff. Since then we have heard nothing."

"There is the saying, 'No news is good news,'" remarked Clinton.

"If only we could believe that!" sighed Mrs. Kirkland. "Do you wonder that I was delighted when I saw you there at the depot, looking so strong and well?"

"Mistaking me for this unfortunate Mr. Lowrie," sympathetically replied Clinton.

The physician had drawn out his watch. "I must return to the sanitarium. If you can keep Mr. Clinton entertained I shall be back soon—seven-thirty or eight."

He was up and away with his usual briskness.

A few minutes later they left the table and went in to what Mrs. Kirkland aptly termed the living room. With a matter-of-course hearing Ellen at once seated herself at the piano and began to search in her music cabinet. Mrs. Kirkland excused herself to Clinton and went out a side doorway. Owing to the twisted corner of a rug the door did not close fast. A draft swung it ajar as Clinton drew back farther from the girl and seated himself on the chair at the far side of the doorway.

He leaned back at ease and quietly took in the tasteful unpretentiousness of his surroundings. Ellen continued her search through the thick piles of music in the cabinet. She had made three or four selections and was looking for others when the muffled, broken murmur of a woman's voice came to Clinton through the narrow opening of the door. He was not in a position to see through the crack, but there could be no doubt that Mrs. Kirkland was at a telephone some distance away, probably at the end of a narrow passage.

Only disjointed fragments of her talk were audible:

"Amy . . . alone? . . . How shall I tell you . . . this afternoon . . . alone? . . . No, no! . . . looks splendid, but . . . not Will. Not the slightest remembrance . . . must not despair . . . Yes, I'm certain, if anyone can cure him . . . be prepared . . . believes himself . . . Clinton."

As he realized that he was listening to talk that had reference to himself, the young man thrust out his hand to close the door. The sound attracted the attention of Ellen. She looked about at the guest, the corners of her perfect mouth drooping.

She bent over the keyboard and began to play something soft and low that ran into eerie minor notes. He stood at the corner of the piano gazing down at her with a look of frank enjoyment. She was undoubtedly beautiful and she played well.

When she looked up her eyes were suffused with tears, but there was eager expectancy in her glance. In his eyes was only the politely reserved admiration of a stranger. Her lips began to quiver. A tear overflowed and ran down her white cheek. She

A SPORTS COSTUME.
Little sleeveless colored basques have much to do with enlivening the frocks for summer wear. Here a very plain frock of crepe de chine with broad collar and tight, short sleeves is supplemented by a basque of jade green sports silk. The skirt is finely plaited. Her hat is of hemp and grosgrain ribbon, jade green.

He bowed forward with her face in her hands, sobbing in an uncontrollable outburst of grief.

He was overcome with consternation. "Miss Kirkland!—What can I have done? Believe me, I would not for anything—"

"It's—it's not what you've done!" she sobbed. "It's what you've not done!"

"What I've not done?" he asked. "If only you'll tell me!"

"You don't even remember it—our favorite!" she cried.

"You mean—surely you cannot expect me to remember something I never—It's not possible you still believe that I am not myself."

"But it's—it's you who deny it; you who—"

She looked up at him, her tear-streaming eyes full of pitiful entreaty. "Oh, Will! won't you please try to remember who you are?"

"Miss Kirkland, pray be calm. I assure you that I am Richard Clinton. I can easily prove that I—"

"Look!" she interrupted, holding up her slender left hand, on which sparkled the diamond of a single ring. "Try to think! You must remember; you cannot have forgotten about—"

A rosy blush swept down over her pale face—"about when you put it there, dear?"

About her slender neck was a fine gold chain, from which an oval locket hung pendant on her heaving bosom. She caught up the locket and touched the spring. The jeweled front of the locket opened. Within was a miniature painting.

"Who is this—tell me, who is this?" she asked.

To see the miniature it was necessary that he should bend down close to the blushing girl. His own face flushed with embarrassment, but he seated himself on the end of the bench and leaned over with his square jaw beside her rounded white shoulder. Had he looked only at the girl it would not have been surprising.

PERCENTAGE PLAN OF IMMIGRATION PROPOSED METHOD

New Regulatory Measure Has Several Good and Novel Features.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—A bill based on a new policy and embodying several novel features for the regulation of immigration and the naturalization of aliens has been introduced by Representative Welby of Ohio.

The bill will not suspend all immigration, as is urged by many, neither will it permit completely free immigration, as is also advocated by many. It steers between the Scylla of suspension and the Charybdis of free immigration. The bill proposes to regulate the amount of immigration from each people in view of:

1—Their demonstrated assimilability to our people and institutions.

2—The maintenance of American standards of living and wages; and

3—The adaptability of each people to our industrial, agricultural and other labor needs.

The proposal is to admit only so many as and no more than we can wholly Americanize and steadily employ.

The study of these matters and the decision of the questions involved are entrusted to an immigration board consisting of the secretaries of State, Labor, Commerce, Interior and Agriculture, with one additional member appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. It shall determine the yearly maximum number to be admitted from each people in the light of their characteristics and our needs. The board is required to do several other things also. It is to prepare a text-book on "American Citizenship" which all candidates for naturalization shall be required to know. It must be simple in style, attractive in form and not to exceed 40,000 words. The board is also to prepare a statement of the "rights and duties of aliens residing in the United States" which is to be given to each alien on entering this country when he gives his "Pledge of Obedience" to our laws. The board is also to study the question of distribution of immigration and devise means for securing it.

The standards of naturalization are raised by requiring of applicants ability to read as well as to speak the English language. They must also have some knowledge of the history of the American people, the methods and ideals of our government and the rights and duties of citizens. The privilege of becoming a citizen is extended to every one who fulfills these requirements.

This comprehensive and constructive immigration measure makes it impossible to repeal as it does, all the special laws dealing differentially with Chinese without, however, exposing California and the Pacific coast to the dangers of Chinese immigration. It is not generally known, yet it is a fact, that all our so-called Chinese laws are "contraventions" of our treaty with China, for America promised to give Chinese in America "most favored nation treatment." For 30 years, however, we have not been doing so.

The board may apply different percentage rates to the different peoples, but in no case may it assign a rate higher for any given people than 10 per cent of the American-born children plus the naturalized American citizens of that people. This provision is based on the well known fact that some people assimilate more easily and rapidly than others. Some people also fit into our economic and industrial life more acceptably than others. It is estimated that if the board should grant the maximum rate for each people, 10 per cent, the total immigration for a single year permitted to come from countries of northwest Europe would be about 1,500,000, and that from south, central and east Europe, would be about 500,000.

MILLION DOLLAR JUNE SALES

YES!

Kaufmann & Baer's
did start something
and they're keeping it up!

How much the people everywhere appreciate this new June drive to bring prices down is being proved every day by the record-breaking response. It's just like starting our Anniversary Sale all over again—for people are fairly swarming here every day of the sale.

A month ago Kaufmann & Baer Co.—true to its usual initiative—was the first great store in Pittsburgh to launch a campaign for lower prices. Its efforts during May received such enthusiastic approval from Pittsburgh's thrifty shoppers—and incidentally brought us the largest volume of business in our history—that we have inaugurated the

with a startling series of offerings
---many at about actual wholesale cost

Every day new lots of seasonable, summer merchandise is brought forward—is sold quickly (some, in fact, within a few hours)—and new lots, equally as attractive in quality and value take their place. It's the new drive that is

Demonstrating The K. & B. Leadership In Value-Giving!

Every penny counts these days! There is no man or woman who does not have to watch the expenditure of the smallest sum. People have to stretch their dollars making them do double duty. This sale provides the way! It is pointing a thousand-and-one fingers to thrift-opportunities—showing the way to bring the dollar back to its old-time purchasing power.

Every person, within reach of this message, owes it to himself to heed this call. Make it a point to come to Pittsburgh as soon as it is convenient to witness an outpouring of values that no other store in Pittsburgh can possibly duplicate.

ATTENTION!

If an able bodied man were to strike you in the face without what you would consider provocation and you were preparing to defend yourself, then he would be saying, "Just a moment, don't strike, I have a year to arbitrate my action under the rules of 'Justification'."

WHAT WOULD YOU DO? Republics and empires are no different from individuals. When they differ on questions of state they do not always use good judgment. They sometimes strike fatal blows to groups of their fellow citizens who are less prepared to engage in justice.

It is your country, you "pounded" upon by some of the powers that burden their subjects with exorbitant taxation to maintain mobile armies for alleged "self protection" now would you feel if, after the best possible settlement was made, a new language was being taught in our schools?

The United States is opposed to a large standing Army, but if we were assailed why should your neighbor go to the trenches to do your pro rata share of that work necessary to maintain the glorious freedom of this Republic? You would likely go, but ARE YOU PREPARED?

CAN YOU SHOOT? Could you live outdoors in all kinds of weather and enjoy it? Are you familiar with the care of your body in the open? Above all, are you a patriotic American?

The National Guard of today is free of liquor and all the objectionable features of the past. It does not interfere with any young man's employment, religion or politics. He is taught to be prompt and alert to the interest of his government and if he graduates at the end of an enlistment by procuring an honorable discharge, he is a better citizen to the community and for himself.

The National Guard of Pennsylvania is the best paid and best kept of any volunteer troops in the world. The opportunity for advancement, self improvement, mentally and physically and the pleasure of the out-door camp life annually with full pay, puts the service within the reach of every young man with red blood in his veins.

The Army of Company D, 10th Infantry, is being equipped with all kinds of gym equipment the use of which is free to all members of the Company. The Army is to be made a Club House for the members' use. Come out to the Army and talk it over with the officers any Monday, Wednesday or Thursday night and help make Company D a real success.

AT THE ARMY.

During the dance held at the Army Wednesday evening by the Jr. C. club, some unknown person or persons broke several locks off the doors where the aluminum ware was stored and secured it for the use of the club. If things of this kind continue there will be several guards placed throughout the building and anyone caught tampering with the state property will be dealt with according to law.

Privates Charles Yaw and Fred Banner are leaving to take up government jobs in Pittsburgh on the U. S. S. Slackwater.

A new Victrola and 40 records has been purchased for the Company D boys. Bob Hannan will have the instrument installed in the Club Room parlors for their exclusive use.

Charles Storey and Captain Skomp were on a fishing trip on Memorial Day. They waded down Tate's Hollow creek and came back home hungry but with 12 small trout. Skomp says it was a Memorial Day that would not skip his memory for a few days.

We wish to state that although Privates Yaw and Banner are leaving for Pittsburgh, they are not severing their relations with us. They will be on deck for our trip to Mount Gretna, and will at all times be much interested in the Company.

It was the intention of the officers to have Company D men turn out for the Memorial Day parade. There were only three men who took part. Company D's roster includes many former service men, quite a number of them marching with the American Legion and other veterans' organizations.

Takes Hold and Helps.

Colds that "hang on" should be gotten rid of, for no one can stand the strain of racking cough, disturbed sleep and irritation of throat and lungs. Marie Heikler, Freeport, Ill., writes: "I had more or less of a cough for years and I have taken quite a number of medicines. None of them takes hold and helps like Foley's Honey and Tar." This old, reliable cough syrup promptly helps coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough. Keeps you up to date. Children like it. Sold everywhere.

"BETWEEN DETAILS."

TRAILING A MYSTERY.

Herman Lucroff, Franks, star reporter for the National Guardsman, on the trail of a mystery story. This story has several turns. Watch for the following in our next issue: "How I interviewed a Duck."

HERE AND THERE.

"In some parts of Africa, a man doesn't know his wife until after he has married her," said Mrs. Gabb, as she looked up from the newspaper she was reading.

"Huh," replied Mr. Gabb, "Why mention Africa especially?" Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE MUSIC THAT HAS CHARMS. Re—"Most girls I have found, don't appreciate real music."

Second He—"Why do you say that?" Re—"Well, you may pick beautiful strains on a mandolin for an hour, and she won't even look out of the window, but just one horn of a horn and out she comes!"—London Blythe.

EFFICIENCY NEEDED IN THE MAILMEN. Anthony J. Howard of Decatur, Ill., applied at a Marine recruiting station to enlist. Anthony's left eye was missing.

The recruiting sergeant told him that he needed two eyes.

"I don't see why you won't take me," said Anthony, "don't you have to scout or close one eye when you shoot?" "Wouldn't have to waste any time doing that," You need modern efficiency in your service, I can see that."

THE LAST STRAW. From Answers, London. "I wish now," said the lecturer, "to tax your memory."

"Well, in the audience," "Has it come to that?"

WERE OGG. My Oujia board I love it so! The truth it does not tell. But as compared with folks I know, it's doing very well.

Unlucky Bill McKee Again. Memorial Day saw Private McKee, boldly march the streets. But another day, far far away. A different man you greet. "What's that?" Bill said, as he scratched his back.

And splashed some mud. "Mack, knocked off—dead? Well I'm ahead of it." For I let Mack it was a dud.

Now as he thinks of those reckless days. When life wasn't worth a cent. On Memorial Day, there is a better way. Peace is what it meant.

The Coke Region—Division, West Penn. Division, N. E. L. A., gave a dance at the State Armory last evening. They had a table set aside at the entrance and several of their men were busy securing recruits for Company D. If some of the other organizations of Connelville were as interested in our Company as this one, it would be but a short time until the Company would be "mustered in."

REGIMENTAL NOTES. Company D's quota of commissioned officers is complete, the same having been announced from the Adjutant General's office.

Plans have been completed for a two weeks' camp the last of August at Mount Gretna. A schedule of interest to both new and old Guardsmen has been arranged.

Pennsylvania will take an active part in the national rifle matches this year and Adjutant General Beary intends to have the rifle teams of the state at Mount Gretna prior to the big shoot. We want some of our own boys in the state match and, if their marks warrant, in the national match.

DRILL SCHEDULE. 7:40—Assembly. 7:45—Roll Call. 7:50—Drill Period. 8:00—Drill—Close Order, Retreat Instruction under Captain Skomp and First Sergeant. Experienced men under First Lieutenant Bewick. 9:00—Physical Exercises. Entire Company under Captain Skomp and First Lieutenant Bewick. Hazing will be under a Special Instructor. 9:20—Singing. Entire Company under Captain Skomp. 9:30—School. Patrol Leaders, Non-Commissioned Officers under Captain Skomp. Signals—Section A under First Lieutenant Bewick. First Aid—Section B under Special Instructor. Map Drawing—Section C under Second Lieutenant Marlette. 10:20—Change in civilian clothes. 10:30—Dismissal.

Teheran Fall Denied. LONDON, June 4.—Prince Mirza, the Persian foreign minister who is now in London, today offered evidence that the reports of the occupation of Teheran by the Bolsheviks were untrue, by announcing that Shah of Persia had arrived in Teheran yesterday from his visit to Europe and had been welcomed by 200,000 people.

SPORTS.

Several of the boys went trout fishing Memorial Day. One or two large catches were reported. For example, one party of three caught 11 nice trout varying from two to four inches long and three sun fish of a like size. Not bad, eh?

Private Clarence Hume took part in the W. P. I. A. L. track meet at Schenley Oval, Pittsburgh, Saturday. He was entered in four events, the high jump, 20-yard hurdle, 20-yard dash and 100-yard dash. This was Hume's first meet and considering that he was entered with men who jumped five feet and six inches and ran 100 yards in 10-1/5 seconds, the Company D man made a good showing.

Permission has been granted to the members of the Company to start rifle work at the range. We have the rifles, Springfield 1903; the range and ammunition. When a team of eight men is organized we will start practice.

For the Good of the Company. Read books on military training, action and life.

In order to give the Company a better standing report the following situations so that we may be able to correct them:

A misuse of the club room and what it contains.

A misuse of other rooms and equipment about the Armory.

Any one carrying state property from the Armory or breaking locks on doors leading to the various rooms of the building.

Clubs or organizations using the Armory for dances and thereby misusing the privileges given them. For example, throwing water and punch on the floor and allowing the contents of ice cream freezers to melt and run over the floor. This has happened frequently in the last two months and organizations responsible are only making trouble for themselves in the future.

Give any personal news items you may have during the week to members of the National Guardsman staff and the items will then appear in the paper.

The Value of Good Books. Out of the writer of the World War has arisen one great constructive result in a recognition of the enormous value of books as avenues of self education and aids in the manifold problems of vocational reconstruction and rehabilitation of those whose service for the United States brought disability or inability to perform tasks to which they were accustomed in the years of peace.

There is a wonderful opportunity in the field of reading for those who desire to secure the things in life which will bring them alongside and eventually ahead of their fellowmen. At the Armory we desire to arrange a reading room and furnish it with the best things we can obtain. So much depends upon the Company receiving state recognition, and this is one of them.

The Sponsors Are Expectant. The members of Company D must say that the girls of the Sponsor club were very kind to help with the recruiting and with feeds and Sponsors are looking forward to the fulfillment of a promise which hinted at a reception in the girls' honor. The Company will fulfill this little promise as soon as state recognition is received, and we hope that will be soon.

Company D to Be Mustered Out. An early discharge of the Third Regiment of the Pennsylvania Reserve Militia is expected by the officers. Colonel Blackstone has received 500 discharge papers of that regiment for his approval. He expects to complete them within 24 hours. The local Company D discharge papers are among those already received by the colonel.

State Rifle Camp to Be Held. The annual rifle encampment of the Pennsylvania National Guard will be held at Mount Gretna, this summer. There will be a team composed of expert marksmen, who have been on the ranges before, and also a junior team composed of new men. The experts have agreed to train the juniors. Prizes and medals are awarded at these matches, which are held every year.

Each company will have one or two representatives on each team.

Co. D Organizers Commended. The success of the reorganization of Company D, 10th Infantry, through the efforts of Captain Skomp, Majors McKee and McCormick, Captains McKee and McCormick, and Captain Skomp, with the assistance of Messrs. Ploto and Angie, who represented the Chamber of Commerce, is favorably commented upon by the State Army and Navy Journal.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"BULLET PROOF."—A romantic story of the northwest with Harry Carey in the leading role, is being shown today; also the sixth chapter of "The Silent Avenger," Vitaphone's interesting serial.

In his newest photodrama Harry Carey appears in an entirely new role, that of Pierre Winton, a young man studying for the priesthood in a land where an athletic life must be as well developed as a man's spiritual and mental qualities. To Pierre comes a letter from his father, dying from the bullet of an assassin and calling upon his son for vengeance.

Pierre forgets his sacred teachings and starts forth in search of McGulirk, the arch-gunner who has terrorized the land. Overcome by an avalanche when he tries to save the life of a young woman threatened by the mountain storm, Pierre is rescued by Jim Boone and his gang of outlaws, who make him one of their number.

Then follows a succession of thrilling events: escapes, star the pulses and yet leave frequent opportunity for the exercise of the Carey smile. The story has a most unusual climax, but comes to a happy ending.

Chief in Mr. Carey's support are Kathleen O'Connor, J. Farrell McDonald, Charles LeMayne, Robert McKim, Beatrice Burnham, W. H. Ryan, Fred Gamble, Joe Harris and Bob McKenzie.

THE SOISSON.

"THE BUTTERFLY MAN."—Starring Lew Cody, the great lover of the screen, is today's feature attraction.

The ladies, only a few of the scores shown in the picture, appear in superbly becoming gowns necessary because the story is based on high society life. There are exquisite costumes of the boudoir and the beach besides ultra gowns of evening and afternoon design, many of them Parisian creations.

As the story develops in its celluloid form it is taken from George Barr McCutcheon's novel of the same name—it becomes more and more vivid than a supreme treat for feminine eyes is in process of revelation. The beautiful costumes, the scenes showing woman in her most intimate moments and the atmosphere of feminine delicacy and refinement which the woman director of the picture has woven about the production all focus on the major element of the screen spectacle—women.

Of course, there is plenty to entertain the men. There is the underlying and ever-present motif of the stellar role, interpreted by Mr. Cody, who fits from one romance into another. The engrossing human element which Cody introduces is certain to intrigue every male.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arceine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arceine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and sniff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.
